IFFD ACTIVITIES IN THE UN, NEW YORK

Kim St. Maurice at the balcony of the General Assembly Hall

From the balcony of the General Assembly Hall, Kim St Maurice, in representation of IFFD, together with other NGOs listened to The Holy Father's remarks which focused on the work of the UN especially in upholding those rights that are outlined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights which was adopted 60 years.

The International Day of Families, on May 15th, was celebrated with an excellent video presentation "To be a father" which showed the importance of early bonding between father and child. This was followed by three speeches that stressed that child rearing should be shared by both father and mother.
